EMBALMING PERMISSION or DECLINATION

Except in certain special cases, embalming is not required by law. Embalming may be necessary, however, if you select certain funeral arrangements, such as a funeral with viewing. If you do not want embalming, you usually have the right to choose an arrangement that does not require you to pay for it, such as direct cremation or immediate burial. (Per Louisiana Law, a deceased person must be embalmed, buried or cremated within 30 hours of death).
